

SHOP Holiday

from A-1

Gift ideas for tasteful
homeowners

Send love on a wing and a pedestal with these Cherub wings by Modern History, $128. The Antiquarian Shop, Sewickey

Nobody does classic like Ralph Lauren so put a ribbon on this set of four tartan plaid dessert plates, $50. Macy's

Everyone knows the gift of time is the best thing anyone can get, so give it with this Gear Wall Clock, $109. Perloria.

European-style rubber vases with all the color of a garden in full bloom by Menu from Carnegie Museum of Art, Oakland. The large vases are $40 ($36 member price) and small are $33 ($29.70 member price).

The Birgit bedroom set turns your tired sanctuary into a cheery, peaceful respite. The Birgit Lantlig duvet cover and pillow sham for full or queen size is $39.99. The Rand blue cushion, which can migrate to a sofa is $19.99. The Linje red cushion and multi-color cushions are $14.99 each. IKEA, Robinson.

This Baby Babette fretwork bookcase from Kindel Furniture's HB Collection is the perfect perch, $4,466. Available through Meadworth Interiors, East Liberty.

This opulent Chinese export reproduction pedestal table of the John Widdicomb Collection will give your home plenty of style. It's lacquered with a carved ball and paw feet and decorated with chinoiserie or lotus flower motif, $5,635. Stickley, Audi & Co.

You can balance beauty and your budget with this Global Views' man on a wire with a balance pole sculpture of bronze with granite base, $419. Today's Home

These one-of-a-kind colorful Miner Jugs are the best kind of recycling there is — trash transformed into art. They're made of discarded jugs and woven with old detonator wires by miners in Eastern Europe waiting for their shifts to start, $90-$155 each. Weisshouse, Shadyside

— By Patricia Sheridan